

The Faculty of Psychology and Sports Science has a vacancy for the following position to start as soon as possible

Professorship (W3) for Individual Differences Psychology, Personality Psychology and Psychological Diagnostics

The position holder should represent the above-mentioned subject areas in research and teaching. He/she must have a profile in research and teaching that corresponds to the field of work of Individual Differences Psychology, Personality Psychology and Psychological Diagnostics, be proven through relevant, internationally visible empirical research and have successfully acquired third-party funding. The position holder is expected to contribute to the research world of "The Changing World: Social Systems, Individualisation and Uncertainty" at Bielefeld University and in particular to current and future interdisciplinary projects and initiatives (e.g. Joint Institute for Individualisation in a Changing Environment (JICE)). Connectivity with the research initiatives of the Department of Psychology (e.g. on the topics of social devaluation and on self-regulation and well-being with intensive longitudinal data) is an advantage. The focus of teaching is on the Bachelor's and Master's programmes of the Department of Psychology.

The department welcomes activities in the area of open science and reproducibility. The ability and willingness for interdisciplinary cooperation, experience in the promotion of young researchers and in the development of curricula, participation in self-administration, proved competences/further education in University didactics, personnel leadership and management as well as gender competence are desired. The faculty considers gender equality of women and men to be an important task, which the future holder of the position will help to implement. Applicants are requested to also take gender-related aspects into account in research and teaching as well as in the promotion of young academics in a professionally appropriate manner.

According to § 36 HG NRW, the requirements for appointment are a completed university degree in a relevant subject, the special aptitude for academic work, which is demonstrated by the quality of the doctorate, pedagogical aptitude, which is demonstrated by a corresponding example or is exceptionally determined in the appointment procedure, as well as additional academic achievements, which are exclusively and comprehensively evaluated in the appointment procedure.

Applications from suitable persons who are severely disabled and disabled persons who are on equal terms with these are expressly encouraged.

Bielefeld University has received several awards for its success in equal opportunities and is certified as a family-friendly university. It welcomes applications from women. This applies especially in the academic field. It handles applications in accordance with the State Equal Opportunities Act (Landesgleichstellungsgesetz). Family times will be considered in the context of the selection decision.

Bielefeld University supports dual-career constellations to establish a common centre of life and work.

Please submit your application with a cover letter, curriculum vitae with a description of your academic career, list of publications with an indication of the 10 most important publications, list of third-party funding received to date, and a letter of motivation.

Please submit your application online via the University of Bielefeld's vocation portal by September 20, 2023:

<https://berufungen.uni-bielefeld.de/>

Contact:

Bielefeld University
Dean of the Faculty of Psychology and Sports Science
PO Box 10 01 31
D-33501 Bielefeld
e-mail: dekanat.psychologie@uni-bielefeld.de

Please note that risks to confidentiality and unauthorized access by third parties cannot be ruled out when communicating via unencrypted e-mail. Information on the processing of personal data can be found at https://uni-bielefeld.de/uni/karriere/2019_DS-Hinweise_englisch.pdf